JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 53 months.

The Court ORDERS the defendant to pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, to the Clerk of the Court, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $5,394 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
---------------	---------------

Citibank	$5,394
----------	---------

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $ 50 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, DAVID TED TRUJEQUE, is hereby committed on Count One of the Single-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 53 months. This sentence shall be served concurrent to the undischarged term of imprisonment in San Bernardino County Superior Court, Case No. FWV802355.

8. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name or names without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer;

11. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to be a location where members of the VNE gang meet and/or assemble; and
12. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

USA vs. DAVID TED TRUJEQUEDocket No.: CR 09-1322-DMG

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further disclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment during the period of his incarceration. The Court also recommends that the defendant participate in any available drug abuse treatment and education programs offered by the Bureau of Prisons. The Court further recommends that the Bureau of Prisons designate the defendant to a facility in Southern California where he can receive any necessary concurrent mental health and drug treatment.

During his term of imprisonment and through the term of supervised release, the defendant shall write a letter to the Court once a year by December 31 reporting on his status and progress in his drug treatment and rehabilitation.

The Statement of Reasons shall be provided to the Probation Office, the U. S. Sentencing Commission, and the Bureau of Prisons.

The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. Sect. 3553, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.
